

Wonderwise Evaluation
Science Sleepover #5 April 23, 1999

1. Please indicate your role: Teacher Parent Administrator Other _____ grade 5 grade 6

Video

2. Did you view the video? Yes No
(If not, please skip this section.)

3. Would you say the video was too simplistic, about right, or too complex for the participating students?
too simplistic about right too complex

4. Would you say the video was too short, about the right length, or too long for the topic presented?
too short about the right length too long

5. How was the video used during the sleepover? (For example, was the biography presented at the same time? Did the students have a discussion about the video?)

6. What were the students' reactions to the video? (For example, did the students ask about being scientists; did they seem bored; did they ask more information about a topic; did they share personal experiences?)

Activities

7. Did you participate in the activities? Yes No
(If not, please skip this section.)

8. Which activities from the kit did you use with the students? (circle all that apply)

- Nutty Investigations Rainforest in Your Room
- Frogs Up Close and Personal Life in a Nutshell Game
- Build a Tree

9. Were these activities on target for the participating students? Too simplistic About right Too complex

Comments?

